RESTAURANT REVIEW

This time we'll bring you to the five stars Indian cuisine and vegetarian with Western style and a little bit of Asian taste.

PLACE REVIEW

QUEEN'S TANDOOR

With their first restaurant opened in 2004 in Bali, Queen's Tandoor promptly established a reputation of serving five stars Indian Cuisine.

Located on the busy Seminyak, the restaurant has a pleasant interior, space and warmth. Fit for a family event, a gathering or a private dinner.

Queen's Tandoor second branch at Jl. Kartika Plaza, offer a little more casual and modern environment with a little more fusion added on the menus.

Queen's Tandoor has won prestigious awards, and also many praises from the customers worldwide, which is not an overstatement because with 5 chefs straight from India working in the kitchen, Queen's Tandoor delivers the best and the curry-est of Indian food right to you. Vegetable Samosa, Chicken Tandoori, Sheekh Kebab, Chicken Vindaloo, and Malai Kofta are some the most favored dishes amongst the extensive menus with the accompany of Naan, Chappati or Saffron Rice. Vegetarian will have no problem on coming and enjoying the food, since there a lot of vegetarian dishes available.

And if you are adventurous enough or enthusiastic for Indian taste, close your meal with the exotic taste of Kulfi – an Indian style ice cream or Masala Tea – a good tea for your health also.
