Authentic INDIAN CATERING Available In Bali

With a population of one billion, the Indian Sub Continent is quite vast. Its different regions and states are famous for their own particular style of cooking. The food of India is in fact, extremely diverse, as the ingredients, spices and cooking methods vary hugely from region to region. The Indian Catering industry is therefore, just as varied. Indian catering companies, such as ours, offer a variety of these popular cuisines of India.

Starting from the North, Punjabi food is famous for its Tandoori style of cooking. Be it meats, vegetables or breads, everything is cooked in a coal-fired clay oven, which gives each item a distinctive flavour and aroma.

And, then we have from the west, Gujarati cuisine, which is chiefly vegetarian. Usually, the meal is served in a 'thali'- a tray containing a number of small bowls containing various specialties. A typical thali meal consists of two types of vegetables, a dahl (lentil dish), rice, bread and a sweet dish.

Moving on towards Southwest, we have Maharashtrian cuisine, which in contrast to Gujarat, includes ample meat and fish in its dishes. Seafood is also a traditional part of an evening meal for the people of Bengal, located on the eastern coast.

On the southernmost tip of India, Kerala cuisine consists of meat, fish and vegetables, flavoured with a specific blend of spices and ingredients, that give the dishes a sweet and spicy flavour. Coconut and rice are staple ingredients in Kerala food.

As established and experienced Indian catering company, Queen's Tandoor can offer a variety of cuisines. Our catering section on our website is quite user friendly. And, it has been organized in such a way, so as to make it as simple as possible for our guests to identify the different types of Indian catering and the multi-cuisine dining options offered by Queen's Tandoor.
